Men S o c c e r

Finishing the year in third place, the soccer team was the best team East High has ever had. Under the direction of Coach Tom Brownell, the team's final record was five wins, two losses, and one tie. Next year should also prove to be very successful with twelve sophomores returning as lettermen. With such players as senior Erik Gotaas, who finished as the league's leading scorer with eighteen goals, and seniors Rusty Wehner, Sam Stott and Dale Quick turning in excellent defensive play, it is no wonder that the team had such a successful year.

Our 1977 Big Red football team proved to be one of the better teams at East in recent years. Under the direction of Head Coach Roger Craig, the Angels demonstrated tremendous team unity and leadership. The players had the desire to win, were aggressive, hard working, and were superior in representing East High. Our congratulations to the team for doing such a great job!

The Girls Gymnastic Team had a successful season because of their great determination and their desire to work towards personal satisfaction. Under the direction of Head Coach Marge O'Hara, the team showed devotion, individual improvement, and had amazing success despite tough competition.

Volleyball

Although there were few returning players from last year, the many new members of the East High School Volleyball team proved to be outstanding players. All seventeen of these girls were energetic, enthusiastic, and filled with spirit. Alice (Junior) Weed and Jackie Dean, their coaches, backed the team all the way and regard this team as one of the finest yet.

Mens Tennis

Under the direction of Coach Gary Harris, the East High Tennis Team was a smash. Because they worked well together as a team, both practice and team matches were enjoyable. East's team maintained a hopeful outlook, and their school spirit was always present.

L TO R: Coach Gary Harris, Andy Wilbur, Monty Cleworth, Van Frazier, Scott Dock, Mike Shur, Eric Luna, Rick Kitchen, Tom Thorton, Mike Sanchez, Kyle Addermann, Miguel Jewett, Robby Mejia, Greg Carroll, John Schwartz, Ron Miles, Monty Godec, Greg Takamatsu. NOT PRESENT: Brooke Burton.

This year proved a turn around for the Coed Cross Country Team. More people joined and competed this year than ever before. Coach Gene Cisneros is highly enthusiastic about the possibility of the team becoming League contenders next year. Bill Bennerman, James Walker, Tyrone Hocker, Mark Kahre, and Maritza Jewitt strengthened the team immensely with their fantastic running prowess. It is with great pride that we salute this outstanding team.

Homecoming

1977

The lunchroom, transformed into a dance floor with decorative red and white streamers, was the scene of the 1977 Homecoming Dance. Handsomely dressed couples danced to disco sounds and celebrated the crowning of Homecoming Queen Ronnie Ellerbee and King Mike Gaiter. The theme "Especially For You," fit well, for the dance was enjoyed by all.

Butterflies Are Free

This year the East High School Theatre Department presented "Butterflies Are Free" under the direction of Cathrine Davis and under the technical direction of Lloyd Torres. With beautiful sets, a fantastic cast, and a well organized stage crew the play was a smashing success.

I knew the day you met me,
 I could love you if you let me,
 Though you touched my cheek
 And said how easy you'd forget me,
 You said, "Butterflies are free,
 And so are we."

On that velvet morning,
 When our love was forming,
 I said it wouldn't hurt me
 If you left without warning.
 I said, "Butterflies are free,
 And so are we."
 And you made me understand
 Right from the start,
 I could hold your gentle hand,
 But never hold your heart.

So why the crying?
 Were our brave words lying
 When we both agreed
 There'd be no tears in our goodbying?
 Butterflies are free.
 Why aren't we?

In February, East was visited by one of America's most dynamic public speakers. Reverend Jesse Jackson brought to the student body one of the most outstanding and influential assemblies ever. It was an experience the students of East will never forget!

We may never pass this way again
 Dreams-so they say
 Are for the fools and they let them drift away
 Peace-like the silent dove
 Should be flying but it's only just begun
 Like Columbus in the olden days
 We must gather all our courage
 Sail our ship out on the open sea
 Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
 And take us up, always up
 We may never pass this way again

Soccer

A long anticipated event, the Girl's Soccer Team got off to a good start this year with a good number of girls going out for the team. Coach Tom Brownell, along with the rest of the team, had a positive outlook and big hopes for a winning team. Veterans Barb Pearl and Janet Clark make it look easy with their soccer prowess. Girl's Soccer, a growing sport at East, is looking good.

Back again on the courts at East High School was the Girl's Tennis Team including old members such as Patty Clark, Leslie Topham, Patty Mejia and Kim Renzelman. They played hard and to win. Working with them was Coach Rich Mangun. There are high hopes for Kim Renzelman and the state tournament. All in all it was a good year.

"The people are here! The people are East. To each of the 535 seniors and every other student at East, I offer my thanks. My thanks for your beacon of light in my darkness of ignorance. If such a light could spread to every person, they too would understand.

East is not only a school; East is an education in life. Every conceivable type of person attends East. Understanding reigns in these hallowed halls.

East."

Sam Stolt

"I love East — its cellar and tower rooms with boxes stuffed with dust covered scrapbooks, photographs and trophies — its worn stairways — its wooden bannisters that many different hands have touched — its walls within, containing secrets of long ago and not so long ago. But most of all, I love and thank East's people — each of you, offering something unique and special to me and all others at East. If I have truly helped just one person feel a little more important, a little more needed and wanted, then I have accomplished one of my major goals at East ... at life."

One of the main things I've been thinking about is the importance of being a good listener. It's not just about hearing the words, but understanding the meaning behind them. I've learned that it's important to be a good listener, and I've been practicing this skill for a while now. I've found that it's a great way to build relationships and to learn from others. I've also found that it's a great way to improve my own communication skills. I've been practicing this skill for a while now, and I've found that it's a great way to build relationships and to learn from others. I've also found that it's a great way to improve my own communication skills.

You that you've learned some with some, maybe you can at a later date.

So Karen, we've been through a lot of things and there is still more to come. I hope the future is bright and clear for you and you meet success & love. Someday you'll meet that special someone that turns your head upside down. Keep your head to get there and stay sweet. This is the last time I'll come say anything nice about you so you better enjoy it & hope next year and the years to follow are full of joy. When you get married to a rich, handsome loving man, contact me, I'll still be around to tell you if I like him or not. Remember me always.

Love
 & Don't

Karen,
Even though I'm a stranger in a way, it's been nice knowing you in a strange way.
Good luck

He can never tell where his influence stops."

To Karen,

It's been great, wonderful, nice, swell, terrific being with you in French. There, I've used every trite cute cliché there is but... they all fit.

Love,

To: (KAREN)

IT'S BEEN NICE
KNOWING YOU. I HOPE
YOU DON'T THINK I BE SERIOUS WHEN I TALK
CRAZY. I JUST PLAY
A LOT. GOOD LUCK WITH CAREER LEADING!

The Angelus Staff thanks Mrs. Wilcox for her patience and our never ending need of supplies. Thanks to Jostens Yearbook CO. for such a "Mickey Mouse" operation, The Basin Street Restaurant, for putting up with our invasion and serving a wonderful meal, especially Carol Harvey's mother for buying the props for our division pages, Central Administration for banning our division pages. Thanks to Kennedy High School for letting us borrow their color mounts, Ruth and Poppy for getting those mounts, Mr. Keinon for knowing about as much as we did, Mr. Echart, for being such a good sport, McDonald's Restaurant, Anderson Studios-they met all our deadlines, Dave Martin for forgetting his film, Jeannie Marr, for all her patience, Ruth for being such an outstanding help along with Poppy, Lynn and Carol, too. "Good Luck With Winnie." Thanks to Fritz for the pictures he took and didn't take-thanks Virginia and Kris and Tony, we couldn't have a book if it weren't for you, Anna for keeping the bills and Michelle for all her art that took up time for which she never had, To Nat and Eric and Amy, Bev and Mardi, Mara Kay, Thanks, to Loren, Julie and Nancy for never knowing where you were when we needed you. Thank you to Mrs. Ahrens for letting us use her grade book, apple, glasses and papers. Thanks to Mary for the use of her pumpkin. A special thanks to the teachers who put up with our interruptions and let us out of class when necessary. And last but not least, our very sincere congratulations to the Senior Class of 1978-it's been three fabulous years- to the boy's soccer team for coming in third; to the girl's gymnastic team for taking fourth place, The Hatchet Squad, Newspaper Staff, Student Council and everyone at East who made this year happen-

Oh Yes-The Denver Broncos-'cause "we believe in Miracles too"!

With the best of luck, love and happiness to all those who enter and leave East High in '78.
